OPERATION DELIVERY

LAST MONTH'S renewed outbreak of rioting in the St. Paul's district of Bristol again highlights the horrifying future that lies in store for the people of Britain unless action is urgently taken to end coloured immigration into Britain, and to implement a humane policy to repatriate to their countries of origin those immigrants and their offspring already here.

Unfortunately, this obvious solution to the problem of rioting and crime in our inner cities has been consistently ignored by our politicians, with the result that riots are becoming ever more frequent and violent. Sooner or later a riot of truly horrendous proportions is going to occur causing a massive loss of life. Perhaps the politicians will then wake up to the catastrophe which they have done nothing to prevent, and in many cases have actively sought to bring about. They have a great deal to answer for.

Perhaps the most worrying aspect of the latest Bristol riot is that since the riots there in 1980, the St. Paul's area has been a virtual no-go area to the police, with the result that it has become a haven for drug traffickers, muggers, burglars, pimps, prostitutes and the like. It is only because the lawlessness has spilled over into surrounding areas that the police have been allowed to enter the area in force in an attempt to re-establish the rule of law.

The very fact that the operation, codenamed "Delivery", necessitated hundreds of policemen being secreted into the area in furniture vans illustrates just how far things had been allowed to go. It is unlikely that such a state of affairs would be permitted in any area of this country other than those predominantly occupied by "ethnic minorities".

The response of the politicians to the riots was predictable: the fault lay with almost everyone except the politicians themselves. Quite the most ludicrous remark made in the aftermath of the disturbances came from Home Secretary Douglas Hurd, who is reported to have expressed the hope that private industry would invest in inner city areas like St. Paul's in order to create jobs and restore the "quality of life" in those blighted areas. If he really believes that anyone is going to invest in areas where rioting, arson, mugging, drug-peddling and theft are endemic, then he will believe anything.

No, it is quite obvious that exercises like Operation Delivery do not solve anything. As we said earlier, there is one obvious solution to the riotous behaviour that now so often occurs in the alien enclaves established in so many of our cities: there must be an immediate end to all coloured immigration, and coloured people already here must be returned to the lands of their origin without delay.

British Nationalist, though it believes in racial differences, opposes race-hatred. All those who oppose multi-racialism should attack the politicians who promote it, not the immigrants, who are merely its victims.

"The truth does not matter", Judge Herrod imprisoning David Owens on Race Act charges

COMMENTARY BY STANLEY CLAYTON-GARNETT,
BNP Chairman for the North of England

"THE TRUTH does not matter," said Judge Herrod in Leeds Crown Court during the trial of British National Party activist David Owens. To many in court this statement sounded like a cynical contradiction of the rules of evidence and a slur upon the very essence of justice and yet, Judge Herrod was right in law. He was not referring to justice, but to the law which in race relations issues, within our multi-racial society, is often at variance with the truth. The Race Relations Act was not conceived in truth, but in confusion as a ploy with which to resist any white, racial reaction against the wanton betrayal by mainstream politicians of our racial, cultural and genetic heritage. Those who raise their voices in truth, become the victims of the demerits of this debased, discriminatory law: a law which relegates truth to an ineffectual abstraction; a law which reduces the courts to being instruments of the multi-racial Establishment; a law which denies the right of white British patriots to tell the truth and deprives them of justice in the courts. It also establishes that British justice is as selectively cosmetic as the much vaunted opiate of British democracy.

John Tyndall, John Morse, Joe Pearce, Martin Wingfield and many other patriots and Nationalists have been the victims of this hypocritically pious charade. John Tyndall and John Morse are currently "prisoners of conscience" not in some remote "banana republic" but here, in Britain. Why has Amnesty International and the Council of Civil Liberties and the "plethora of bleeding hearts" who normally wring their hands at the sight of injustice not raised their unctuous voices in protest? It is obvious that here again, "truth does not matter" because they are all components of the same charade of "permissive liberalism" which is the tool of internationalism and seeks to erode our exclusive, ethnic culture and heritage. Why are our letters to the press, written in support of our "prisoners of conscience" not published? Why does Archbishop Runcie not speak in support of John Tyndall in the same way that he speaks for the arch-criminal Mandela? Why does the venerable Archbishop not question the absence of the Christian virtue "truth" from our courts? It is because all these interests serve the same "historical international agency" which is the avowed enemy of Nationalism and seeks to destroy Nationalism and to frustrate its dynamic message.

When we observe the aggregate of the forces opposed to us we should rejoice in their injustice, for in denying truth, justice and racial integrity they cover themselves in dishonour and mark the measure of our success and the significance of the strength of our political philosophy. They feel menaced by the quality of our leadership, the devotion of our activists and the "pogroms" which they initiate against us are the symptoms of our success.

It is necessary, now, to look to the present in order to preserve the future. We are conservationists, true conservationists. We are fighting to preserve and to conserve our national culture and heritage, our Anglo-Saxon-Celtic genetic pool and the idealism of our race from the machination of the international conspirators and corruptors. We are striving to purify contemporary society from the evils of gratuitous violence, drug abuse, sexual deviation, unemployment and pernicious multi-racialism. We, at this political watershed, must campaign harder than ever before in order to keep faith with those who have sacrificed their lives and those who have sacrificed their freedom for our country and race. Every activity attended, every leaflet delivered, every positive act to promote the cause of Nationalism is an act of rededication to the cause and another blow struck at the political Establishment. We may be comparatively few in number at the present time, but militant, persistent minorities become successful majorities. We are the conservers of the "truth" which the state decries and fears, but which we will continue to tell. Let us make sure that the sacrifice of our "prisoners of conscience" has not been in vain. Increase your endeavours, maintain your solidarity, keep faith and ours will be the victory.

THIRD WORLD IMMIGRANTS POUR INTO WEST GERMANY

COMMUNISTS have recognised for many years the potential of the race issue to disorientate, disrupt and finally destroy advanced Western industrial societies. Now West Germany is facing a major racial crisis as thousands of third world immigrants are pouring into the country.

The East German airline Interflug and the Soviet airline Aeroflot have joined forces in a cynical operation to earn hard currency for their ailing economies and to destabilise West German society by flooding it with racially and socially incompatible outsiders. The two airlines have been busy advertising cheap flights from Third World destinations to Schönefeld airport just outside East Berlin. When they arrive the communist authorities shepherd the so-called 'refugees' over the border into West Berlin.

In 1985 74,000 'refugees' arrived in West Germany mainly via the East Berlin route. This year the figure is expected to cross the 100,000 mark. New arrivals in June 1986 included 1,600 from Iran, 1,000 from the Lebanon, 730 Ghanaians, 680 Kurds from Turkey and 540 Indians.

Already racial violence has erupted; at Deggendorf in Bavaria a 28 year old Ghanaian died in fighting between Ghanaians and Pakistanis; at a refugee centre in Ingelheim in the Rhineland over a hundred 'refugees' fought a pitched battle with knives and iron bars. Three people were seriously injured in the second incident.

There are signs that ordinary Germans are resisting these developments. Many have joined the NPD (a similar Party to our own BNP) whilst others have formed themselves into non-political citizens' groups such as the Bürgerinitiative Ausländerstopp. We wish them success in their struggle and hope that Deggendorf and Ingelheim will not become crime ridden, riot torn Third World enclaves like our Brixtons, Toxteths and Handsworths.

YOUR LETTERS

Sir,—The one year prison sentence for BNP Leader John Tyndall and British Nationalist editor John Morse is more proof, if any were needed, that the once vaunted 'Mother of democracies' has become a whore of Internationalism. Britain, once the greatest nation on earth, ruler of nearly half the globe, has shrunk into a second-rate state, imprisoning men for telling the simple truth about immigration and black crime.

The British National Party is pledged to rid this country of the wicked Race Relations Act, the work of traitors at Westminster. Our nation is being torn apart both physically and spiritually. And the men who stand up in opposition to this destruction are imprisoned!

John Tyndall and John Morse are political prisoners: they have been sent to prison for writing material that the Establishment does not like. In the end, when all is said and done — WHAT PRICE FREEDOM?

KEN USHER,
Liverpool

Sir,—I feel sad and bitter about the sentencing of JT. A sincere man like him should not be in prison with criminals.

This whole business is political. I cannot understand how an open court in England could allow political imprisonment. How we have gone down the drain.

J.D. BANNISTER
Crawley, Sussex

Sir,—I wish to express my disgust at the imprisonment of the two patriots, John Tyndall and John Morse, imprisoned for speaking the truth about the multi-racial hell. It does show that the alien-dominated Establishment is worried. They know that the truth is becoming known.

I wish to echo the words of the two John's: "We will not be silenced."

IAN DELL,
London S.E.18

Sir,—I long ago lost faith in "democracy" (as it is generally known), but until recently I still believed that our British system of justice was second to none; but the rot has set in even here, as shown by the vindictive imprisonment of the two editors.

Following this series of political trials, no patriotic voter can any longer place reliance in the Conservatives with their hypocritical cries of "freedom of speech for all" and "liberty for the individual".

JOHN LESTER,
Poole, Dorset

Sir,—The jailing of BNP and NF members for Race Act charges should be more reason than enough for the coming together of all Nationalists. If we are to be a force to be reckoned with, then we must unite.

Our war memorials, in tribute to our fallen heroes say, "They died for race and nation." I expect that this will be erased one day. The land of the free, where has it gone?

ROB ALLEN,
Portchester, Hants.

Sir,—I enclose a copy of a letter I wrote, of support to John Tyndall, after reading in British Nationalist of the disgraceful — though not altogether surprising — outcome of the recent trial.

I am glad to know that this outcome to the trial in no way diminishes the resolve of John Tyndall and his colleagues to continue to bring the Truth to the notice of the British people.

P. ELVIDGE (Mrs.),
North Nottinghamshire

Editor's Note: Herewith Mrs. Elvidge's letter to JT:—

Dear Mr. Tyndall,

You do not know me, nor I you personally, but I was so outraged to learn of your jail sentence for the trumped-up "crime" of incitement to racial hatred, I felt that I had to write, along I hope with many others, to offer my moral support.

Since I had learned of your impending court case in July, I had been watching the press for news of the outcome, but I had to wait until publication of the September British Nationalist to discover the results of this disgraceful example of misjudgement on one of Britain's most loyal subjects; so much for our "free" press, and "unbiased" news bulletins!

I am sure that you do not need me to tell you, I look forward to your return, bringing hope to us, and strengthening our resolve that, despite the dark days of the present, once again Britain will be fit to call herself "Great".

Sincerely,
P. ELVIDGE (Mrs.)

QUOTES

"The dissolution of the British Empire within the space of twenty-five years, and the reduction of Britain itself to a second-rate power, forced to accept racial mongrelization of its stock and threatened with actual subjugation, should be sufficient evidence and warning of what a precarious life any nation of people lives."

— William Gayley Simpson from Which Way Western Man?

"You will not improve this world by allowing hordes of people from abroad to come in, without any safeguards against the activities in your country."

— Douglas Reed from Disgrace Abounding

When the 'Third World' declares war...

THE ARAB bombing campaign in France, directly against French citizens in crowded streets and cafes of Paris, shows that the assault on our world that started with Immigration — the permitting in the 1950's of large numbers — of millions — of aliens to flood into the White Man's world, in the case of France millions of Arabs from North Africa being permitted to set up communities by taking over whole suburbs of Paris and other major cities, this assault has taken a giant's step. A group of Arabs in pursuance of some Arab, Moslem objective in the Middle East, and using the Arab immigrant community in France as a base and as a cover, has declared war on France and is killing French citizens in an attempt to bend the French Government to its will.

The murder of Woman Police Constable Yvonne Fletcher by a gunman firing from the Libyan 'People's Bureau' in St. James's Square, and the hacking to death of PC Blake-lock by a mob of black savages in Tottenham, North London, to the publicly avowed approval of the Negro immigrant leader of the local council, prompts the question for us: how long before the knives and machetes are exchanged for bombs and bullets over here?

In Canada, the large Sikh community that has been permitted to establish itself has declared war and is waging a vicious campaign against the Government of India, in the name of the 'Holy Temple' of Amritsar, in the Punjab, in a dispute arising from the employment of Indian troops to take over the Sikh temple. This dispute has absolutely nothing to do with Canada, yet now Canadian citizens have been killed and a Canadian aircraft blown up in the name of the 'Holy Temple', as these Asians pursue their murderous vendetta.

HORROR gripped Paris last night as five people died in the sixth bomb attack on the city centre in two weeks.
Forty-four people were injured, 14 of them seriously, when terrorists blasted rush-hour shoppers at a packed store.
Many of the victims were women and children. Bombing victims in Paris, who are usually in the middle of the city, are often in the middle of the city.

That the present leaders of the West have no understanding of these phenomena of communal violence was shown by Mrs. Thatcher's fatuous remark describing the Sikh community in Southall, West London, holding a public celebration of the murder of their Hindu rival, Mrs. Indira Gandhi, as "despicable". The attitude of the Sikhs to leading figures in the White world was made clear when, on the occasion of a judge in Canada ordering two Sikhs from the Canadian community to be extradited back to India to face charges of having placed aboard the bombs that caused an Air India jet to explode in mid-air above the Atlantic, killing all on board, the judge himself was shot and killed. Sikhs claimed responsibility.

TALKING POINTS

by RONALD RICKCORD

PATHFINDER

Perhaps it was only to be expected that the death of Air Vice-Marshal Donald "Pathfinder" Bennett merited scant attention from the media. By contrast, the death during the very same week, of a thrice-married Coronation Street actress, was headline news for several days! How typical of the times in which we live!

Donald Clifford Tyndall Bennett was without doubt one of the greatest heroes of the Second World War. An outstanding aviator and man of enormous physical and moral courage, he almost single-handedly developed the techniques of pinpointing enemy targets for precision bombing. As a leader he was equally outstanding, and became the youngest Air Vice-Marshal in the RAF at the age of 32. At the end of the war he became an MP, but resigned his seat after only two months.

I first became acquainted with Don Bennett in the early Seventies, when we were both campaigning against Britain's entry into the Common Market. At that time I was serving in the RAF, and I felt that having such an illustrious ex-RAF officer as a colleague would provide me with some protection if I fell foul of the RAF authorities on account of my "political" activities!

Having an Australian father and an English mother, Don Bennett was greatly dismayed by the disintegration of the Old (white) Commonwealth; he was equally concerned about the influx of coloured immigrants into Britain during recent years. The last time I saw him I asked him why he spent such a short time as an MP. He replied in his typically laconic way: "Because I couldn't endure rubbing shoulders with clowns, crooks and queers." It is a sad fact that we shall not see the likes of the Pathfinder again. I do hope the old warrior has found his way to the Valhalla he so richly deserves.

DOOMSDAY

Recommendations that before being allowed entry into Britain, all visitors from Zambia, Uganda and Tanzania should be given blood tests to ensure that they are not infected with AIDS, have been rejected by the Government on the grounds that the introduction of such tests would be "impractical". The recommendations, known as "The Domesday Reports", were submitted to the Foreign Office by the British High Commissioners in the three countries, where the disease is rife. They are supported by the findings of British doctors.

The Government's refusal to take any action to prevent the importation of AIDS into Britain is supported by Labour Leader Neil Kinnock, who is reported to have said that compulsory screening of visitors from Africa would amount to racial discrimination. This dereliction of duty by the Government and the inane remarks made by Mr. Kinnock, yet again cause me to wonder if there are any British politicians who care at all about the welfare of the British people. Most of them seem positively to welcome the advent of Domesday. Certainly many of them seem less worried about contracting AIDS than they are about being branded a "racist"!

HYPOCRISY & HUMBUG

As an example of sheer hypocrisy, the hysterical campaign being waged to force the Government to impose economic sanctions against South Africa can seldom have been equalled. The nauseating humbug so typical of the opponents of South Africa is plain for everyone to see. It is odd that we never hear these people suggesting that sanctions ought to be imposed against India on account of its degrading caste system, or against the African black dictators who use the one-party system of government to tyrannise their people, or against Russia for its brutal occupation of Afghanistan. I could go on.

However, what I considered particularly hypocritical about the anti-apartheid campaign in recent weeks, was the crude attempt to bully the British Government into supporting the campaign by threatening to disrupt the Commonwealth Games. And what made matters even worse was the undue readiness in some quarters to give into such blackmail in order to save the Games. After all, they were only games, and not therefore very important except to the participants, who hoped to win fame and glory and, of course, to the sponsors, who doubtless hoped to earn a very good return on their outlay.

Come to think of it, the Commonwealth itself is not very important either; except, of course, to the black tyrants who rely on British aid to prop up their corrupt and evil regimes. Despite all their brave words about leaving the Commonwealth uttered by despots like Kenneth Kaunda at the recent Commonwealth Conference, it is notable that not one of them carried out their threats. Presumably they reason that sooner or later Mrs. Thatcher will accede to their demands for sanctions, and probably they are right. And, in any case, they are far too shrewd to jeopardise that very welcome aid being poured into their pockets by the over-burdened British taxpayer.

For myself, I would not care one jot or tittle if the Commonwealth itself were to disappear from the face of the earth tomorrow, and I suspect there are many other like-minded Britons who would agree with me.

River pollution

A REQUEST to be allowed to scatter the ashes of the dead in the rivers of Northamptonshire has been made to the Anglian Water Authority by Sikhs and Hindus living in the county. They have made the request because they are no longer allowed to send ashes to India for scattering in the Ganges as the practice contravenes anti-pollution measures recently enforced by the Indian Government. The Anglian Water Authority has announced that it is waiting to see if local people will be offended by the ritual being permitted in Northamptonshire before giving the go-ahead.

Book ban

LABOUR members of the Oxfordshire County Council have demanded that Biggles and Enid Blyton books should be banned from county libraries because they are "racist and sexist". The councillors complain that "the boys in these books are always having adventures and taking charge, while the girls are always quiet and demure, playing with dolls."

Great Birmingham Meeting

A SPIRIT OF AGGRESSIVE DETERMINATION fired the first political rally held since the imprisoning of the two party leaders, John Tyndall and John Morse. Filmed under TV lights for a programme to be shown later, the theme of the meeting was, "Release the political prisoners - Free Speech for Whites." Staged in central Birmingham on the 13th September with an audience of some one hundred, speaker after speaker made use of the opportunity to attack the corrupt and vicious ruling Tory party. The party that was elected to office on a platform of Law & Order, and is now presiding over the present mayhem in our cities of riot and crime - a murder a day on average in London - as our civilisation collapses, has now taken to imprisoning patriots in a calculated and typically cynical attempt to silence their opponents.

Our answer was given by David Owens of Leeds BNP Branch - himself having been jailed under the Race Act for the "crime" of telling the truth. David Owens received a standing ovation when he declared to the meeting, "We will not be silenced." Ian Sloan of Liverpool spoke of our two leaders in jail and said how they were true leaders: "John Tyndall and John Morse have taken the fight right into the enemy's camp: in prison they walk tall, as avowed Nationalists. They are right and they have been proved right. Their gain is the loss to the Establishment, whose fine words of 'Free Speech' and 'Democracy' have been exposed as lies and treachery." Ian Sloan finished with a rousing call of, "Smash the Race Act! Free Speech for Whites." Next to speak were two recent converts to the BNP from the Conservative Party: James Coakley-Boyce and Stuart Millson. There is no place in the modern Tory Party for militant patriots, they told the meeting. The iniquitous Anglo-Irish Agreement, a British Foreign Secretary talking to the ANC, the sanctions against South Africa, the gradual EEC takeover of British Sovereignty through the Single European Act, the appalling social and moral decay, in particular in schools and colleges of higher education - "The Tories are nothing but traitors." Within the ranks of the BNP you can actively campaign for Britain and the British people, declared James Coakley-Boyce, but in the Tory Party you would just end up campaigning to assist some moneyed Asian to fulfil his political ambitions in this country, and that's not for me.

National Activities Organiser David Bruce, and Richard Edmonds, Acting Leader, spoke last. David Bruce called upon the activists to put up thousands of the "Jailed for telling the Truth" posters. Let us expose the Tories - they jail patriots for the "crime" of telling the truth, whilst at the same time mobs of savages are on our streets stabbing down policemen, and the IRA plant bombs and commit murder - with the Government refusing to restore capital punishment.

Dave Bruce called for a collection which raised over £200. The thanks of the Party are due to Stan Goodwin who did an excellent job of chairing the meeting, under the heat of the TV lights, and to Birmingham BNP for organising the meeting. The TV team filming the meeting were most interested in the Tory members who had joined the BNP. "Margaret Thatcher has betrayed Britain. Her free market policies are utterly incompatible with patriotism. Her opening a factory for the Japanese car company Nissan in Sunderland, whilst Austin Rover suffers a £60 million pound loss, is just the latest example of her anti-British policies in practice. Not the Tory Party, but the BNP is the party to join if you want to campaign for Britain," Stuart Millson told the TV interviewer.

Discusses the failure of our debt-based financial system and describes its role in creating inflation. 1983, 158pp.

THE GREAT HOLOCAUST TRIAL
(Michael Hoffman II) £3.00 (34p)

This book provides an intense account of the spectacular trial of Ernst Zundel, the German-Canadian publisher, who was prosecuted for publishing a booklet of 'Holocaust' revisionism. 1985, 95pp.

THE WHITE MAN'S BIBLE (Ben Klassen) £6.70 (98p)

A controversial and hard-hitting book outlining the author's ideal of a new religion based on the right to survival of the white race. The author in presenting his ideas makes it plain who represents the threat to white survival. 1973, 508pp.

We should perhaps make plain that Klassen is strongly critical of the Christian religion, and the many devout Christians we are glad to number among our customers will find much to disagree with in this book.

THE SIX MILLION RECONSIDERED
(W. Grimstad) £2.50 (66p)

Examines not only the 'Holocaust' but other topics involved in the Jewish question. 1977, 68pp

SUCCESSFUL SUMMER CAMP

THIS YEAR'S SUMMER CAMP, held by the Devon and Cornwall BNP, was a great success. Over 50 people spent the August Bank holiday weekend in attendance, and came from Birmingham, Devizes, London and East Anglia as well as from locally. The camp was held on a site near Tintagel, and despite the unfavourable weather, an enjoyable time was had by all.

Political highlight of the camp was a rally, dedicated to the two jailed BNP leaders, and with the theme, "Release the political prisoners - Free speech for Whites." BNP Organiser for Devon and Cornwall, David Bearsford-Walker, chaired the rally and the speakers were Stuart Millson, David Bruce and Acting Leader Richard Edmonds. The rally was followed in the evening by a barbecue around a bonfire. Throughout the weekend sports, games and outings to the nearby coast, complete with ruined castle, had been organised. The thanks of all are due to the Organiser, David Bearsford-Walker, for a most pleasing and useful combination of politics and family entertainment, and extra thanks to members of David's family for attending so well to the catering side.

In order to meet the anticipated extra demand for places at next year's camp, extra camping equipment will be required. Offers of equipment, in reasonable repair, to the Organiser, Devon & Cornwall BNP, PO Box 75, Plymouth, PL1 1SQ.

WHAT WE STAND FOR

- The return of leadership and statesmanship to British affairs.
- A government that will put British interests first.
- British withdrawal from the European Common Market.
- Closer links with the White Commonwealth.
- Protection of British industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from Britain.
- A sane financial system that will give to the people the purchasing power to buy the goods they produce.
- The revival of British farming.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources.
- A clamp-down on social security spongers and the restoration of the incentive to work - with the proviso that work is locally available.
- An end to immigration and a start to repatriation.
- British support for the Whites in South Africa.
- An end to financial aid to corrupt Third World regimes.
- The strengthening of Britain's defences.
- Tougher treatment of criminals.
- The smashing of the IRA, the death penalty for terrorists and firm support for the Loyalist majority in Northern Ireland.
- Repealing of the laws permitting Abortion and Homosexuality and a general toughening up of legislation against the promotion of obscenity in the media.
- The elimination of Communism in Britain, in the mass media, in the factory and in the schoolroom.
